SALARY: $38.46-$43.26/hr

SUPERVISED BY: Tribal Chief

ROLE: The Chief of Police serves as the chief administrative officer of the department and is responsible for overseeing and directing the law enforcement operations within tribal jurisdiction. This includes ensuring public safety, enforcing tribal, state, and federal laws, and maintaining strong community relationships. The Chief of Police will develop and implement department policies, manage personnel, and coordinate with other law enforcement agencies to protect tribal members and assets.

POSITION RESPONSIBILITIES:

- Develop and implement policies and procedures that align with tribal sovereignty, adhere to tribal, state, and federal laws, and integrate community policing strategies
- Develop and manage department budgets, allocate resources efficiently, and secure grants or funding to support tribal law enforcement initiatives
- Oversee patrol operations, criminal investigations, emergency response, and crisis management efforts to ensure the protection of all residents and properties within the tribal community and the safety of law enforcement personnel
- Perform staff evaluations
- Responsible for the efficiency and discipline of personnel under command.
- Coordinate with tribal, state, and federal law enforcement agencies to address jurisdictional matters and enhance public safety.
- Ensure compliance with tribal laws, federal regulations, and law enforcement best practices.
- Develop and implement crime prevention and intervention programs tailored to the community's needs.
- Oversee patrol operations, criminal investigations, emergency response, and crisis management efforts to ensure the protection of all residents and properties within the tribal community and personnel
- Lead, train, and mentor officers in culturally competent and trauma-informed law enforcement practices, emphasizing de-escalation techniques, conflict resolution, and restorative justice.
- Foster strong relationships with tribal leadership, elders, and community members to enhance trust and collaboration.
- Collaborate cooperatively and effectively with other tribal department heads, focusing on achieving the goals of the Houlton Band of Maliseet Indians.
- Establish and maintain relationships with tribal and non-tribal stakeholders

- Engage with community members and address concerns through public meetings, school outreach programs, and proactive policing efforts to address safety concerns and strengthen relationships between law enforcement and the public.
- Ensure adherence to tribal laws, federal regulations, and law enforcement best practices while maintaining accountability and transparency within the department.
- Design and implement crime prevention, intervention, and rehabilitation programs that address substance abuse, domestic violence, and youth crime, tailored to the needs of the tribal community.
- Maintains as much personal contact as possible with businesses, civic, cultural, religious, recreational, charitable, youth and media agencies, in creating cohesive community relationships.
- Participates in the Healing to Wellness Court process.

QUALIFICATIONS

MINIMUM

Leadership & Management

- Experience in management
- Proven ability to lead, mentor, and manage a team of officers in a culturally sensitive and community-oriented policing model.
- Strong budget management skills and experience in the grant application process for law enforcement funding.

Legal & Jurisdictional Knowledge

- Understanding of federal, state, and tribal laws, including jurisdictional complexities within Indian Country.
- Knowledge of the Indian Civil Rights Act, Tribal Law and Order Act, and agreements such as cross-deputization with local and state agencies.
- Familiarity with treaties, sovereignty issues, and tribal governance structures, or willingness to learn.

Ethics & Background Requirements

- Must pass a comprehensive background check, including criminal history, credit, and employment verification.
- No felony convictions or domestic violence-related offenses.
- Must possess a valid State of Maine driver's license and meet tribal insurance requirements.
